- (20) The above common recruitment process will be completed by the end of 2018 (full year) , till then crIndia will not entertain frivolous complaints against the recruitment process.
- (21) Crindia reserves the right to conduct online exam in two stages: in that case an applicant can take tier 1 (preliminary) exam from any place using any device by logging in online exam software with ID and password without allocation of centres of exam. However Tier 2 exam will be conducted only in few selected centers (to be intimated later) for only those candidates who have cleared required cutoffs of tier-1.
- (22) Common recruitment exam will be conducted to create an All India Job pool only and not a direct job/appointment offer. Those candidates who will qualify in exam will become part of the Job pool. Once become the part of job pool a candidate will get topmost priority for job placement in reputed organization/Institutions registered with crIndia.

(23) Whether Job is private or public sector (Govt.) : Depending upon the nature of registered/client organizations whether public or private, the nature of job can be public or private accordingly. For example if an organization registered with crIndia is of public sector in nature then a selected/certified candidate will get public sector job. In addition if a selected candidate does not want to join private sector job then he/she will be considered for public sector job in next round of openings. CrIndia will maintain a waiting list for such selected candidates.

(24) Merely appearing for exam, certification by crIndia or completion of recruitment process for job pool does not constitute the offer for job or appointment. Appointment will be done by organisation registered with crIndia and not crIndia itself. In above process crIndia is only functioning as a recruitment service provider only (as middleman between employer and employee) and does not provide jobs/appointments itself.

(25) Common Exam (CE) for All India Job pool (Clerk/backoffice) in various organizations/ institutions enrolled with crIndia or otherwise. CrIndia is an online job portal to exchange information between employers and job applicants. We conceptualise job pool by conducting an all India online examination to shortlist applicants to serve immediate staff needs in pvt sector. Below given process is to create an all India job pool only and does not constitute any immediate/direct recruitment/job offer. However once become the part of job pool a candidate an expect multiple job calls from enrolled organization/Institutions with crIndia or otherwise across the country.

crIndia's main goal is to fill gap between employers and job applicants by providing an online platform and by filling information gap. We hereby clarify that we are not a recruitment agency and only an online service provider registered under GST.
